JASPER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1905

Faith, Hope and Charity

Let faith represent the spring of the year when you are needing a Moline Walking Plow, Light Draft Good-enough Sulky or one of those Playball, Gretchen, Crack-jack, 3 in 1 or Champion Corn Planters, for one puts the crop in right with implements that does the work proper. You then have a right to Hope for a crop. But it is best to include in this word hope to stir your ground with Noname or New Western Cultivators or something better—Balance Frame Dandy Cultivator, combined riding or walking. But if you want to ride all the time get a Dutch Uncle Cultivator. Our riding Cultivators have thousand mile dust proof axels only have to oil once a year. We mean these cultivators for every day use for there is nothing like a New Henney Buggy with 38 inch springs, 115 screws in the bed, 15 springs in the cushion for to make a young man and his sweetheart happy on Sunday. But they say charity is the best of all. Some might think that that meant after buggy riding in one of those easy riding Henneys they had got married, but we believe in this case charity represents the harvest time when you need Plymouth Twine and one of those good old Osborne binders that only elevates the grain 28 inches to harvest your wheat with or one of those Mandt Wagons that have 3 extra braces on bottom of bed and 2 extra spokes in each wheel to haul your grain and they all say they are a fine running wagon; but whether Faith, Hope and Charity represents this line or not there is one thing we are positive of and that is this—the Great Western Endless Apron Manure Spreaders have five changes in feed from driver's seat and it will pay you to buy one of us. Come and see.

AN EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT.

Mrs. Sprague-Waggoner and Others Pleases a Jasper Audience.

The recital given by Mrs. Birdie Sprague-Waggoner and little daughter, assisted by home talent, at the opera house last night was excellent in every respect and was greatly enjoyed by the good size audience which was present.

The selections by Mrs. Waggoner was of a high order and consisted of a variety of selections from the humorous to the tragic. The numbers by her little daughter were also fine and received repeated encores.

The musical features were furnished by home talent and consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Clara Boyer, a musical selection by Patsy Underhill and Ralph Gooding, solo by Miss Logan, piano duet by Misses Alma Rhoades and Edna Gooding and a vocal selection by Miss Neta Hendricks. All performed their parts exceedingly well and each number was enthusiastically applauded.

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Presbyterian church and quite a snug sum was realized.

TAKEN TO NEVADA.

H. Beal's Mind Becomes Slightly Unbalanced.

H. Beal, a well known and highly respected farmer living northwest of town was taken to Nevada yesterday in company with Dr. Schooler for treatment.

A Harmless Runaway.

As Homer King was coming to town Monday morning the tongue of his wagon came off in the south part of town. This scared his horses and they started to run. They jerked the lines from Mr. King's hands and came flying up the street with the tongue dangling along between them. At the Harbor corner they ran into another team tied to the hitchrack and came to a halt. No damage was done except a broken harness.

Miss Ada Frick has returned from St. Louis where she has been for several weeks studying millinery styles and buying a stock of new goods. She has engaged Miss Dorothy Lehmann as a trimmer, who arrived Tuesday.

THE CASE IS SETTLED.

MESSRS CATHER AND LUKENS WITHDRAW THEIR SUIT.

Have Rented The Farm From Mr. Cozatt And Mr. Cather Will Continue To Reside On It.

The difficulty resulting from the double sale of a farm west of this city as chronicled in last week's paper has been settled out of court satisfactory to all concerned. Hence Messrs W. H. Cather and W. H. Lukens have withdrawn their suit which they had instituted against J. A. Cozatt and the former owners of the farm. In the settlement Mr. Cozatt is acknowledged as the owner of the farm and Messrs Cather and Lukens have rented the place from Mr. Cozatt and Mr. Cather will continue to reside on it.

Least some might get a wrong impression from the account of the matter in last week's paper, Mr. Cozatt requests us to state that he had purchased the farm, paid the money and had the deed to it before the other parties had closed their deal for it. The trouble resulted in the former owners not notifying their agent of the sale of the land to Mr. Cozatt until after the agent had made a contract with Messrs Cather and Lukens.

AN UP-TO-DATE STORE.

Jasper's New Clothing Store is All Right.

The new Jasper clothing firm opened their doors to the public last Saturday. While they have not got their entire stock here yet, enough of it is now in shape to indicate that Jasper will have an up-to-date clothing store well able to accommodate the needs of the whole population. Every thing is brand new and the latest styles.

The building which has just been completed presents a handsome appearance, the counters and shelving being finished in hard wood. The front show window has been enclosed with glass and makes an excellent place to display their goods.

Messrs Joyce and Lee are excellent young men and deserve the confidence of the people and doubtless will build up a good business in Jasper.
